Title I SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

2024-2025

SIUE East St. Louis Charter High School and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

School Responsibilities

SIUE East St. Louis Charter High School will:

- 1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards by:
 - Creating a caring community of learners where students have opportunities to share their interests and parts of their culture
 - Ensuring that all students can participate and feel successful in all classroom activities
 - Encouraging student efforts and provide individual feedback to support continued learning
 - Using strategies that support deeper levels of understanding
 - Providing opportunities to practice social skills during group and whole class instruction
 - Planning and adapting curriculum and instruction to meet each student's needs
 - Monitoring and measuring student progress and growth toward state learning standards
 - Assessing student knowledge and skills
 - Valuing families as a resource that support the curriculum
- 2. Hold parent-teacher conferences that center around individual student's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held:

September 18, 2024 | October 16, 2024 | March 19, 2025
- 3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:
 - Progress reports
 - Report Cards
 - Assessment Performance Reports (i.e., NWEA, SAT)
 - 24-Hour Access: Skyward Family Access Center to monitor grades, assignments, schedules, and attendance
- 4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents. Please reach us via the information below:

School Hours: 7:15 - 2:20 p.m.

24-Hour Access: Skyward Family Access Center to monitor grades, assignments, schedules, and attendance

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child’s class and to observe classroom activities, as follows:
- Monthly parent engagement activities are scheduled. See the school calendar, visit the website and/or Skyward for scheduled activities.
 - Individual classroom opportunities will be communicated by the classroom teacher.

Parent Responsibilities:

We, as parents, will support our children’s learning in the following ways:

- Monitor attendance.
- Ensure that homework is completed.
- Monitor the amount of television children watch.
- Volunteer.
- Participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my child’s education.
- Promote positive use of my child’s extracurricular time.
- Stay informed about my child’s education and communicate with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
- Serve, to the extent possible, on policy advisory groups, such as being the Title I, Part A parent representative on the school’s School Improvement Team or other school/district advisory council or policy groups.
- Support the student in adhering to the Student Code of Conduct and Student Handbook

Student Responsibilities:

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the state’s high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Actively participate in class discussions and other learning activities.
- Do my homework every day and ask for help when I need it.
- Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
- Give my parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.
- Promote a safe learning environment.
- Arrive to class on time with necessary materials.
- Adhere to the Student Handbook and Student Code of Conduct.
