

Continuous Improvement Conference

FOR FACULTY AND STAFF: YOUR ROLE IN CLOSING EQUITY GAPS IN STUDENT OUTCOMES AT SIUE

WHERE: MUC CONFERENCE CENTER

WHEN: MARCH 17, 2023 @ 8:00AM - 12:00PM

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

DR. NIA HAYDEL

VICE PRESIDENT FOR ALLIANCE ENGAGEMENT & INSTITUTIONAL
TRANSFORMATION
COMPLETE COLLEGE AMERICA

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION: STUDENT SUCCESS IS EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

WHERE: Maple-Dogwood

WHEN:
8:30AM - 10:00AM

CONCURRENT SESSIONS- 10:10AM - 11:20AM

-Increasing Student Retention and Success through High Impact Practices (HIPs):

John Cabage (Construction Management), Jessica DeSpain (English Language and Literature), Miriam Roccia (Student Affairs), and Tammy Taylor (Career Development Center) - Located in Maple Dogwood

- What high impact practices are
- SIUE's current and future opportunities for student engagement in high impact practices
- The connection between high impact practices, and student persistence, retention, and success

-Creating a Culture of Care: Kelly Atkins (Academic Advising), Nicole Klein (Applied Health), Jessica Ulrich (Counseling Services) - Located in Oak-Redbud

- The importance of building relationships with students
- Knowing who your students are and what they need to be successful
- Techniques to create connections with your students

-Equity-Minded Teaching: Maurina Aranda (Biological Sciences), Natasha Flowers (SEHHB), Britt Peterson (Biological Sciences), and Matt Schunke (Philosophy) - Located in Hickory-Hackberry

- Acknowledging the impact of professor positionality and student identities on college classroom experiences
- (Re)establishing a definition and/or lens for equity-minded teaching
- Preparing for the implementation of strategies for equity and inclusivity in the college classroom

PROCESS AND DEBRIEFING- 11:30AM - 12:00PM

-Speaker: Dr. Jessica Harris (Vice Chancellor for Anti-Racism, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion) - Located in Maple-Dogwood

Thank you to the sponsors who made this event possible!

Faculty Development Council
Office of the Provost

Office of the Vice Chancellor for Anti-Racism, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion