

Graduate Faculty Mentor Award Rubric

Criteria	Weak (1-2)	Adequate (3-4)	Promising (5-7)	Outstanding (8-10)	SCORE
Evidence of holistic mentoring, including support of students' academic, scholarly, professional, & career development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marginal evidence that nominee has supported students in any of the areas of academic, scholarly, professional, and career development needs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sufficient evidence that nominee has supported students in at least 1 area of academic, scholarly, professional, and career development needs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong evidence that nominee has supported students in 2 or more areas of academic, scholarly, professional, and career development needs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exceptional evidence that nominee has supported students holistically across all areas of academic, scholarly, professional, and career development needs
Evidence of sustained commitment to mentees that has promoted professional & career growth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minimal evidence that nominee has provided consistent mentoring support to mentees 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sufficient evidence that nominee has provided consistent mentoring support to mentees beyond 1 semester 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong evidence that nominee has provided consistent mentoring support to mentees during entirety of graduate program 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exceptional evidence that nominee has provided consistent mentoring support to mentees during entirety of graduate program and beyond graduation
Evidence that excellent mentoring of students has supported program success	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marginal evidence that nominee's mentoring support has contributed to overall program success in any of the following areas: increased student retention & completion, enhanced student engagement in scholarly activities within and beyond the classroom, post-graduate outcomes, and program reputation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some evidence that nominee's mentoring support has contributed to overall program success in at least 1 of the following areas: increased student retention & completion, enhanced student engagement in scholarly activities within and beyond the classroom, post-graduate outcomes, and program reputation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong evidence that nominee's mentoring support has contributed to overall program success in at least 2 of the following areas: increased student retention & completion, enhanced student engagement in scholarly activities within and beyond the classroom, post-graduate outcomes, and program reputation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exceptional evidence that nominee's mentoring support has contributed to overall program success in 3 or more of the following areas: such as increased student retention & completion, enhanced student engagement in scholarly activities within and beyond the classroom, post-graduate outcomes, and program reputation
TOTAL SCORE (Max of 30)					